

Talent Solutions for Your Finance and Accounting Needs

When you need finance or accounting talent to get your team through busy periods, seasonal peaks or special projects, Robert Half has you covered. We offer a full suite of finance and accounting talent solutions, including staff-, senior- and management-level professionals available on a contract, project and permanent placement basis. We can supplement your staff or we can supply an entire team — the choice is yours. Robert Half has the largest database of specialized candidates in the market. We match businesses like yours with finance and accounting professionals who have the skills, expertise and work style that best fit your needs.

WHY YOU SHOULD WORK WITH US

Our global network and local market expertise means you have access to skilled professionals when and where you need them, whether on-site or remote through our secure virtual workspaces.

Our matching technology uses decades of placement data to help find candidates with qualifications that match your needs, quickly.

We can connect with you in person, by phone, through email or via video chat — whichever you find most convenient.

We perform skills tests of candidates' competencies using industry-leading exams to analyze and better understand job seekers' abilities and preferences.

FLEXIBLE TALENT SOLUTIONS

Contract and contract-to-hire — Get access to more than 3 million skilled finance and accounting professionals who are available to start work immediately.

Managed Business Solutions — Fully customized solutions and resources are delivered with world-class consulting from Robert Half subsidiary Protiviti, leading a team of the best local, experienced contract talent through Robert Half. Projects include relocation of finance and accounting, business and digital transformation, transaction backlog and cleanup, and process optimization.

Permanent placement — Save time and hire in as little as one to two weeks with our Company-In process, and we'll manage everything from recruiting through negotiating final offers.

Full-time engagement professionals — Our top finance and accounting professionals are available for your long-term project or management needs.

Specialized solutions — Beyond the financial field, our areas of specialization include administrative and customer support, legal, marketing and creative, technology, and internal audit and risk consulting through Protiviti.

OUR PROCESS

Talent acquisition — We interview candidates in person or via phone or video and retain the best talent in our network until the right opportunity comes along for them.

Experience placing remote and hybrid workers — Your new candidate can start on the date you choose, whether in your office or through a virtual workspace we provide them, and we will follow up to make sure things are going smoothly.

Personalized service — Every client has distinct needs, so we make sure we fully understand your specific hiring requirements, workplace culture and budget before recommending any of our candidates.

Digital Experience — Make it even faster and easier to hire and manage new team members by submitting a hiring request and creating your online account today. See your job order history, extend contract professionals on assignment, pay invoices, approve time reports and more. Visit roberthalf.com to get started.

Hiring logistics — We handle all the details of hiring, including pay rate negotiation, start date, time reporting and payroll.

Get started with confidence

We believe in our process and the talent of our people, and we stand behind each one of our placements.
